Happy New Year!

Spend part of 2025 in Kiawah - it is a perfect time to plan your beach vacation. Something to look forward to during the cold winter!

New Video of Kiawah's Wildlife!

The Town of Kiawah just published a wonderful video (less than 5 minutes) highlighting Kiawah's beautiful ecosystem. This breathtaking video gives up close views of Kiawah's dolphins, bobcats and more.

January Special

Get away from the winter cold! We still have some 2 and 3 bedroom cottages with January weeks open. $1,000 plus tax for a January week - we can be flexible with your ideal dates. The average high in January on Kiawah is 60 degrees. (No guarantees that your week will have average temperatures.)

Angel Oak

The Angel Oak Tree is considered to be the largest Oak tree east of the Mississippi and is estimated to be 400 - 500 years old. This historical site is about a 15 minute drive from the Kiawah gate and most guests pass it when they drive to or from Kiawah.
